Theme

The history of mankind, the greatest teacher of all, is liberally endowed with the quality of strength. Within the archives of civilization we find memorials to remind us of this heritage. We can look to the wisdom of Aristotle, the might of Caesar, the faith of Peter, or the leadership of the Lincolns and Churchills of our era.

We, the future leaders of a changing tomorrow, must today find added strength of purpose, wisdom, tolerance, and belief in God. These qualities are necessary to face the world and its many crises; for without strength, we will surely fail.

Therefore, with strength as our theme, as well as our motto and goal, we the EAGLE staff are proud to present the 1965 EAGLE to you, the Associated Student Body of Pater Noster High School.

In Grateful Appreciation

FATHER MICHAEL HANLON

In a time of growing need for education, let us not do injustice to the standard of learning and living that Father Michael Hanlon has shown us.

Due to his leadership, management, and encouragement, our school has gained a foothold in academic and athletic excellence.

Four and one-half years of guidance has given Pater Noster a strong foundation to build upon. Let us carry on the tradition he has begun.

We the student body of Pater Noster High School, in a spirit of deep appreciation, do dedicate the 1965 EAGLE to him - Father Michael H. Hanlon, our first principal.

Louis P. Juge*

our first and real graduate—one of us, who bore with patience for over two years the uncertainty of life, who accepted his cross from the hand of God with the trite — "so what, all that is important is to be ready to go on the eternal journey" — one who was an example of true Christian patience and charity — Louis Patrick Juge — we have loved him in life, let us not forget him in death . . .

When one enters into problems of administration, hopes of bringing a revival in spirit and unity, hopes of making his administration "number one" come very easy. He soon learns that the life of an administrator is not the glory and fast talk of the campaign speech.

In the time of my administration, I have been forced to accept an untimely education. I have learned that expediency, although not preferred, is one of the essential characteristics of being a good leader. I will always remember the loyalty of the Student Body who never lost faith in me. I'll remember the rough times and how we weathered them out.

It has been both an honor and a privilege to be your representative.

The Pater Noster Student Court, under the direction of the Student Body Vice-President, Mike Slaughter, is in charge of the general discipline of the students. In its first year the Student Court has achieved both success and failure. This group has shown that it is possible for a student-run organization to successfully maintain discipline without faculty assistance.

All of its members, along with the help of the Pater Noster Enforcement Committee, have participated in creating a tradition that will last for many years to come.

The members of the P. N. E. C. (Pater Noster Enforcement Committee) act as the police of Pater Noster, authorized by and protecting the Student Constitution and by-laws. They are responsible directly to the Student Court Judges. The realization of many hours of work is fulfilled in this working organization.

Officers

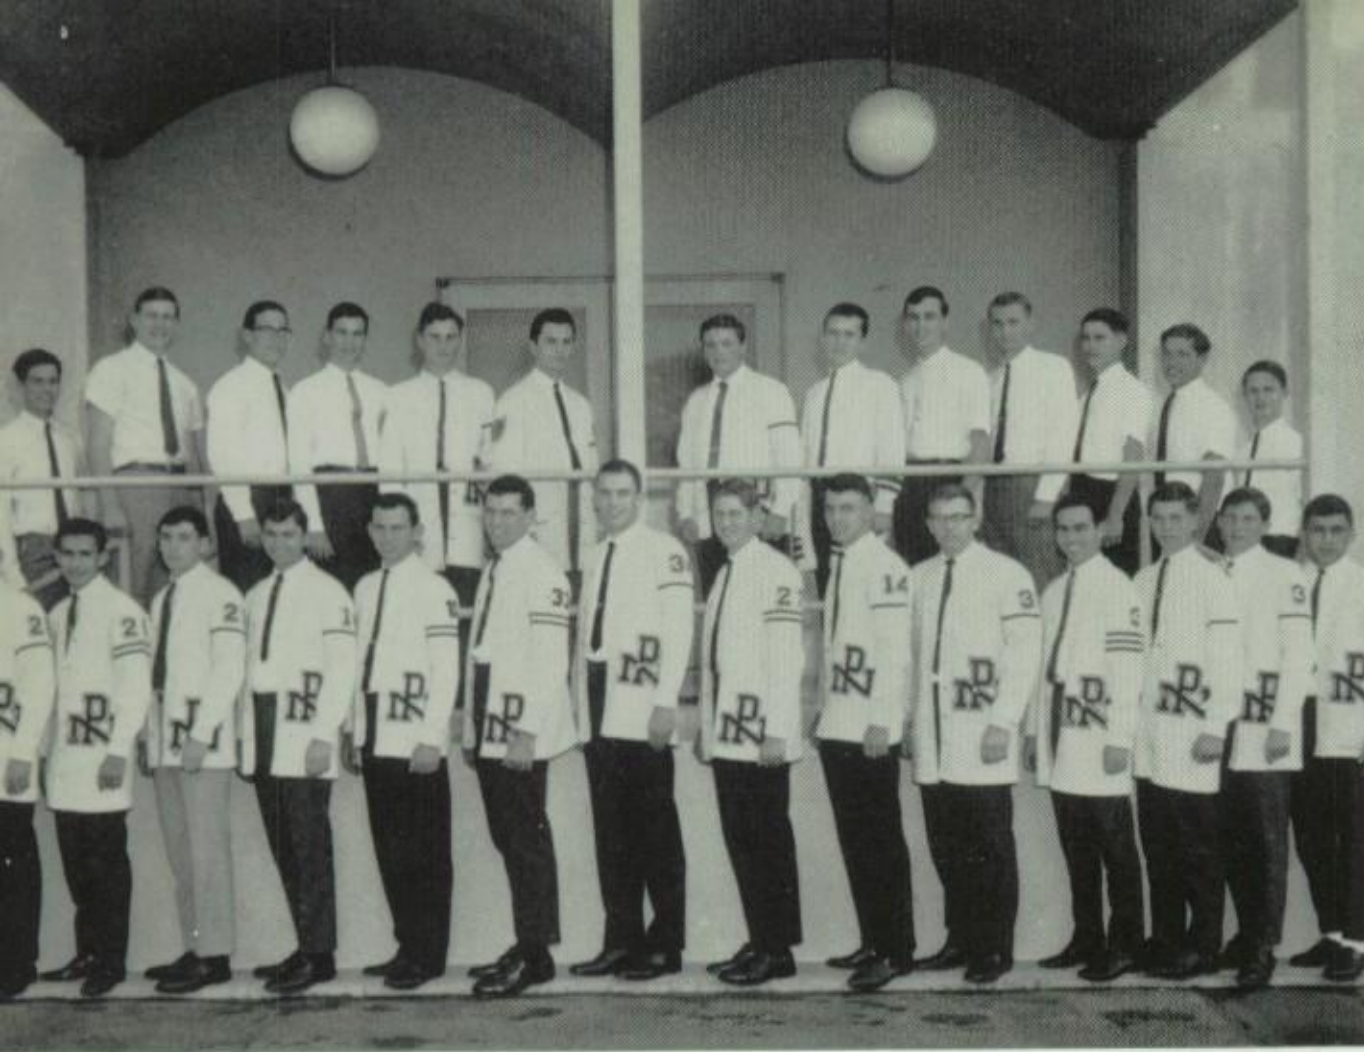

This year, the Sodality of Pater Noster has performed the necessary duty of keeping a religious atmosphere on campus. The major fund raising event of the Sodality was the "Night In Paris" dance.

Social events, along with the annual mission collections, have shown the Student Body's spirit and responsive action to the Sodality's efforts. Under the leadership of Br. Hilary, the Sodality has offered the men of P. N. an accepted program of Catholic Action.

The Letterman's Club of Pater Noster is dedicated to support and uphold the Athletic Code of P.N. The Letterman's Club, an elite club, is restricted to those who have shown superior athletic ability by attaining a varsity letter, while maintaining a specified scholastic grade.

This club is elite in the fact that not only must the member be a superior athlete, but he must meet the approval of the standing members.

The Letterman's Club of Pater Noster is a highly respected organization. Their services are welcomed by both students and faculty.

The Talon, Pater Noster's journalistic publication, is well on its way to establishing itself as a successful media for reporting school news to our students. Through diligent work and spirited effort, the Talon has overcome many obstacles in its quest for excellence. It is evident that the Talon will progress even further and come to be acclaimed as a truly outstanding publication.

Perhaps the busiest organization of the past school year has been the Eagle Staff. The yearbook comes to you in an attempt to pictorially recapture the highlights of school life '64-'65. It has been possible only through unceasing hard work, cooperation by many, and a desire to produce a memento of lasting value. It is hoped we have succeeded, and that, in years to come, the Eagle will serve as a vivid reminder of the days we once disliked but now have come to cherish.

Drama Club

1965 saw the birth of another new organization. It's name was the Drama Club. It's goal was to present a play, "The Billion Dollar Saint." late in March. Because of unforeseen problems, the play fell two weeks short of its goal. Nevertheless, the Drama Club will continue to be an organization of Pater Noster.

Every achievement deserves recognition.

The National and Junior National Honor Society fulfills this purpose in the field of academics. Membership in this society requires a 90 or better average and it is of the highest honor to be enrolled. The accomplishments of the National and Junior National Honor Society are to be praised.

The Pater Noster High School Band, in its five years of existence, has steadily increased in musical prowess each year. Under the capable direction of Mr. Ruggiero, the band has developed several fine individual performers, among them being Philip Ricchiazzi and Mike Slaughter who were selected into the All-Catholic High School Band. All Members of the Pater Noster Band must be congratulated for a well-done job.

The National Junior Honor Society is comprised of Freshmen and Sophomores who have consistently attained a 90 or better average through three successive terms. This academic prowess is not to be taken lightly, as it is very difficult to maintain this high standard. This fine group is another that makes Pater Noster very proud.

The Glee Club, under the able direction of Dr. Connell, has progressed each year to a new height of excellence. The Glee Club has appeared before the Booster's Club, the Christmas program, and the Senior Graduation, also in 1964 they competed against other schools in the Arch-Diocesan choir contest at Notre Dame High School.

Two of Pater Noster's newest organizations are the Electronics Club and the Science Club. These groups generate interest in and familiarize themselves with the scientific equipment available to them here at school. Advanced members work on their own projects, and group activities include such as the public address system used at track meets. These clubs are proving to be excellent backgrounds for interested students in these fields.

Under the direction of Mr. Monzio, the Valeronians (Pater Noster's Speech Club) hosted their first speech tournament. Many schools from the arch-diocese participated in the activity in which Pater Noster received a Gold Medal. The Valeronians goal is to inspire an interest in speech and forensic graces.

The Photography Club is another of the many organized clubs of 1965. The club takes and develops all the pictures for the Eagle and the Talon. Under the direction of Br. Welcome Incoming Freshmen

Early in March, 8th grade boys throughout the archdiocese were given a first-hand introduction to Pater Noster. These prospective Freshmen of next year were shown the facilities which P. N. has to offer. Through guided tours, they became acquainted with just what to expect if they choose P. N. for their high school.

Pater Noster hosted their 1965 basketball, cross-country and soccer awards banquet.

The chicken dinner was served by the girls from Holy Family, and all enjoyed the fine food. The highlight of the evening besides the awards themselves was the address by MR. MIKE PECARAVICH. For fifty-five minutes he kept the entire audience captivated by his free and easy delivery and humorous approach.

All enjoyed the evening.

Presentation to

Father Hanlon

Pictured on this page are the highlights of an evening which will long be remembered in the lives of Father Hanlon and the members of the Boosters Club, as well as the entire Student Body. It was on this night that the Boosters Club presented to Father Hanlon, Pater Noster's first principal, a plaque commemorating the five years he spent in association with Pater Noster. On it was a message of thanks for the fine job he did in establishing a foothold for Pater Noster as an institution of academic excellence.

When the Varsity took on many of the best Sophomore runners, the Junior Varsity was greatly weakened of its spike potential.

It is, however, noteworthy to congratulate the great effort this young team put up.

Under the leadership of Coach Leroy Neal, and by a great effort of the J.V. Cross Country team, they captured a second place in the Camino Real League.

Soccer

The great surprise of the Pater Noster athletic year was the achievement of the Soccer team. Coached by Mr. Becker, the team had an outstanding 7 win-2 lost season.

With the league win, the team went into the C.I.F. Soccer Championship playoffs. Such outstanding players as Frank Theer, John Martinez, Joe Hamori and Chuck Madrano helped win for P.N. the Championship.

Varsity Basketball

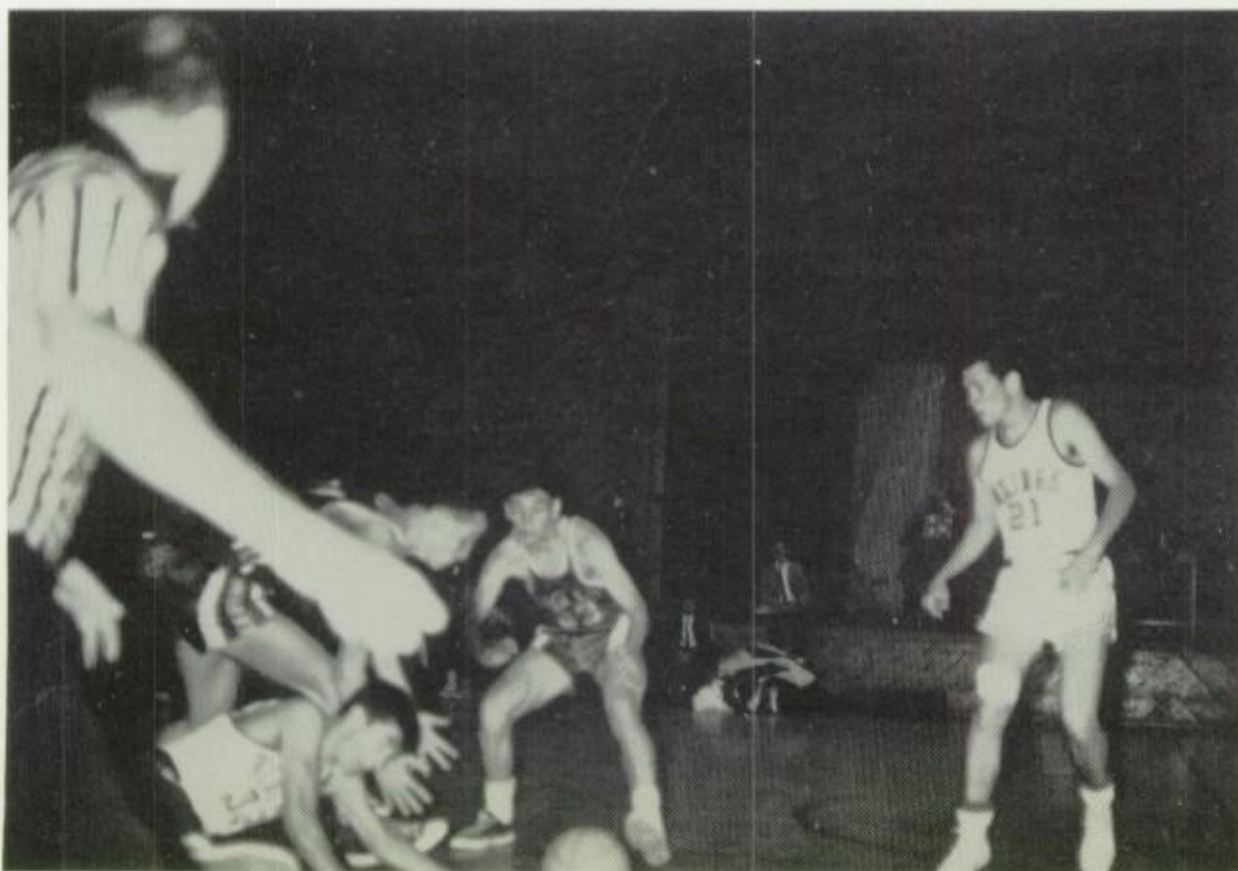

Losing many of its top stars to graduation, Pater Noster's Varsity team posted a modest 14-9 record in Camino Real League competition. Under the coaching of Mr. Parks, Pater Noster's fourth place finish still provided the spectators with many a thrilling moment. With spirited support, the Student Body showed its appreciation of the fine effort put forth by the Varsity team. The highlight of the season came when P.N. shut St. Bernard out of C.I.F. competition. That day shall be forever known as the "longest day" for Bernard's, due to the P.N. Athletes.

With a guiding hand from a fine coach, our Bee team stormed the courts with a lot of spirit and hustle. It was a disappointing year as far as league results were concerned, but this team made up for that in their fine efforts. With a little more seasoning, these boys will become Pater Noster's stars of the future.

This year's J.V. team met with stiff competition throughout the season, and so did not fare as well as was hoped. Still, P.N.'s junior cindermen provided their followers with many exciting moments. It is hoped that next year our J.V. team will rise once again to league dominance.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE ORTEGA

Cee Track

Always a popular sport at Pater Noster, baseball was once again the big sport of the spring months. With such stars as Phil Amormino, Mike Magee and Rich Shatzel, P. N.'s varsity 9 posted an impressive record in Camino Real League competition. Pater Noster should be proud for the fine way we were represented on the diamond.

Junior Varsity

This year J.V. team coached by Mr. Becker will try to improve over last year record. The team has lots of skill and talent and should prove very tough for competitors.

Tennis

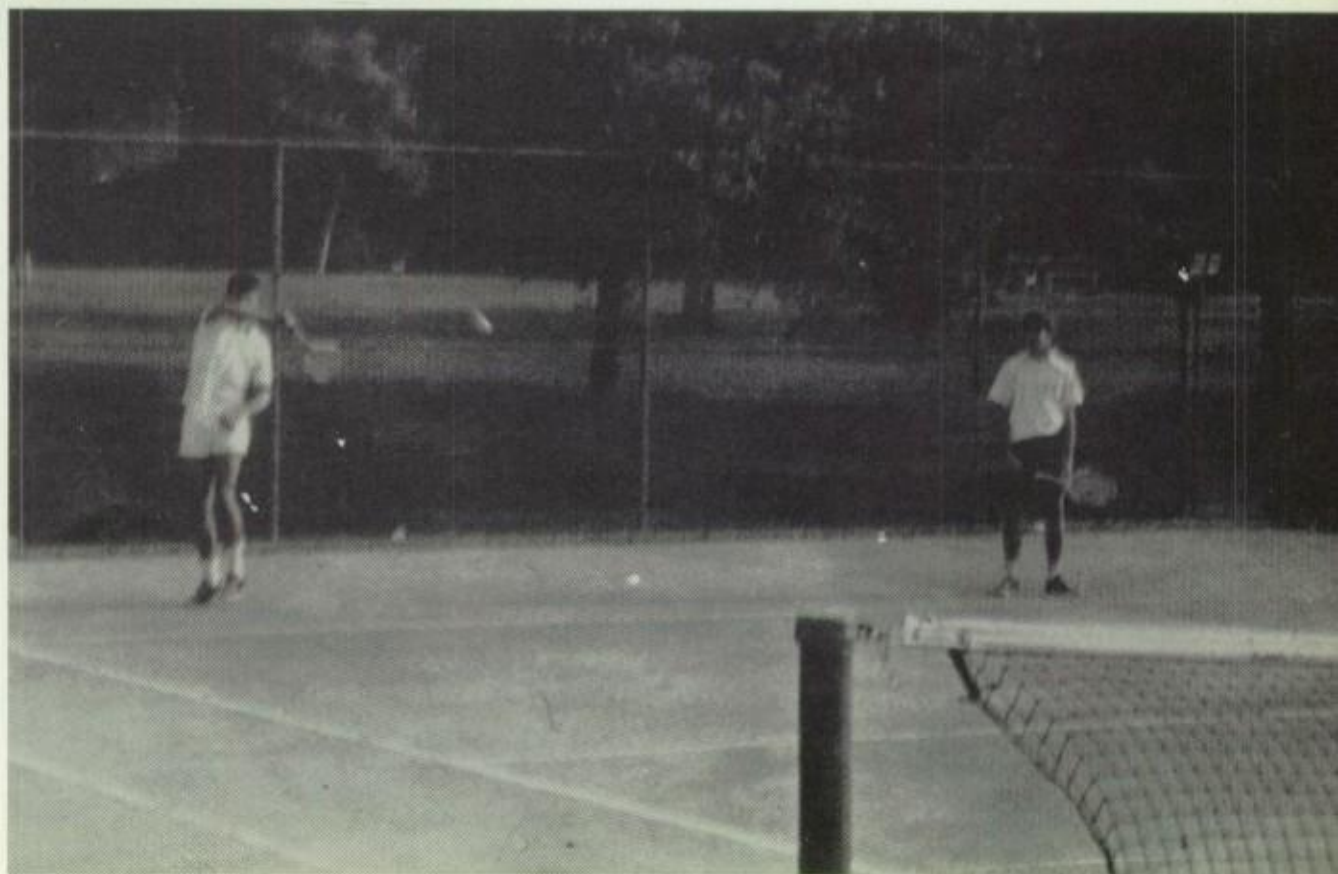

Foss and teammate double against Vianney

This year's tennis team showed good form throughout the season. The members of the team were self-coached. Despite this handicap they still managed to do comparatively well. Tennis at Pater Noster seems to have a bright future, and is rapidly becoming a popular sport among the students.

Message From

the Editor

Dear Student Body:

The 1964-65 school year is now behind us. With summer vacation well on its way, I can look back on the previous year with satisfaction and relief; with satisfaction, in that I know the 1965 EAGLE is the best annual yet; with relief, in that it is finally over and that I and the entire staff can relax.

We who were associated with the publication of the Eagle did not recognize the work that was entailed until we were all fully involved. Many long hours have gone into every page with the knowledge that the 1965 EAGLE had to be the biggest and best yearbook Pater Noster has had.

There are many people I have to extend a very sincere "thank you" to. Among these I must thank the Staff for their long hours of helping to create new and imaginative ideas and the time and effort they spent in Room 406.

To Mrs. Hansen, who helped in obtaining a number of well needed ads.

To Mrs. Lopez, whose help made the monumental task of obtaining names much, much easier.

To the faculty of P.N. for their co-operation and willingness to help.

To Mr. Hall, who cracked the whip when we desperately needed it.

To Charles Law, a junior, whose work in the darkroom provided the EAGLE with the bulk of the candids.

And last, but far from least, to you, the Associated Student Body of Pater Noster, who made this 1965 EAGLE possible.

Good-by and good luck,

Robert H. Andrew
